WILL TELL SHELL GAS SALE PLANS

Millions of dollars are getting ready to go motoring along every highway in the West and Shell men in this district are meeting March 15 in San Jose to make plans for bringing a bumper share of this

R. F. SCHROEDER

"new money" to this region.

The occasion is a regular sales conference of Shell Oil Company, which will be attended by R. H. Inman of Redwood City, local manager.

Among the Shell Conmpany executives who will be present to tell about Shell's plans are: W. P. Durkee, Jr., marketing vice president; L. T. Kittinger, general sales manager; F. C. Foy, head office advertising manager; R. F. Schroder, central division manager, and other officials.

Mr. Inman says reports gathered by Shell from all parts of the country indicate that motor travel in 1935 will reach proportions of the good old days B. D. (before depression).

In keeping with this prosperous development, Shell is extending its advertising program and is increasing the motoring aid supplied travelers without charge by Shell Touring Service.

DuBose Employed At Cement Plant, Not Salt Works

In the story recently published in this newspaper, giving the average figures furnished by General Petroleum Corporation of California and in which the family of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. DuBose was used as the average Northern California motoring family, erroneous information was given regarding Mr. DuBose's place of employment.

Instead of the Leslie Salt Works, it should have read Pacific Portland Cement Company, and General Petroleum Corporation is anxious to correct this error.

Former Legion Head Improved After Slugging

Claude C. Filsinger Victim of Assailant In San Francisco

Claude C. Filsinger, past commander of the local American Legion post who was slugged and robbed by an unidentified assailant in San Francisco Saturday night, was reported as being "much improved" at the Fort Miley Veterans Hospital there on Monday.

Filsinger, whose home is at 264 Grand avenue, was found unconscious near the Fort Miley military reservation early Sunday. It was believed at first he was the victim of a hit-runner, but after recovering consciousness he said a stranger had knocked him down as he walked from the street car line on his way back to the hospital. He had been visiting away from the hospital during the vening. Some $30 which he carried was missing.

Shortly after making his statement, Filsinger, employe of the Sommer and Kaufmann Shoe Company, lapsed into unconsciousness again, but was conscious today. Physicians said he had a concussion. They asked a police investigation.

His wife and daughter, who live here, visited him.

Previous to his work with the shoe concern, Filsinger, who was commander of the Legion post here in 1931 and who is well-known in peninsula veteran circles, worked for Horace Gardiner.

PET MILK FETES FIFTY YEAR MARK

Pet milk, which is celebrating the half century mark of its founding, began business on February 15, 1885 at Highland, Ill.

Louis Latzer, a farmer 37 years of age, who gave up his plow to be tutored in biology and chemistry, worked out the problems of canning milk.

From that start exaporated milk has grown in sales to be the largest single article sold by the American grocers today. Forty million one hundred thousand cases were made in the United States in 1934. The one small plant of Pet Milk Company in 1885 has expanded from coast to coast to over 30 plants. Two of these are located in California, one at Galt and one at Salinas.

Each of the present condenseries produces more Pet Milk in a day than the first plant could make in a year. There are additional plants in Holland, France, and Germany.

The destinies of this company are controlled by its originators, or their descendents. The president, Mr. John A. Latzer, is a son of the founder. Mr. Latzer personally concerns himself with the quality of Pet Milk and jealously guards its standards.

MEAT PRICE RISE CAUSE IS TOLD

Changing meat prices during the past 60 days has prompted a survey by a committee representing livestock producers, packers, retailers and meat industry labor organizations and through the Pacific Livestock and Meat Institute the findings are presented as follows:

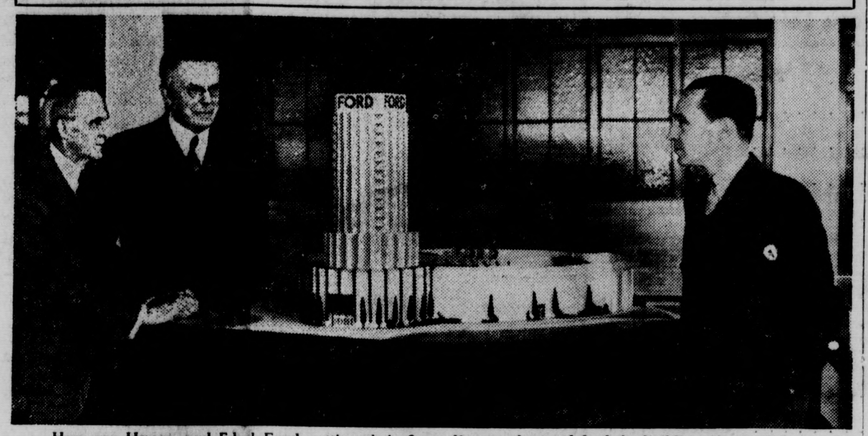
In an attempt to remedy the farmers' situation, the government undertook a farm relief program. As one step, the government set out to adjust live stock production that would yield farmers higher prices. Hog and grain production were reduced substantially. Then came the drouth, and the government bought millions of cattle and sheep in the drough stricken areas. These were processed into canned meat for relief purposes and did not enter the regular channels of trade.

With a sharp reduction in supplies it was natural that meat prices should advance somewhat, but meat prices have not advanced as much since 1930, the most recent peak, as the average representing "all foods." Meat prices are relatively lower, as compared with 1930 prices, than the average of "all foods."

Realtors Would Top Burlingame Trees

BURLINGAME, March 11—A request of the Lang Realty Company to top a long row of eucalyptus trees on Burlingame avenue on a boundary of a new subdivision was expected today to result in a storm of protest from club leaders who recently opposed removal of some of the trees. The realty firm would cut the trees to a height of 12 feet.

THE FORDS PLAN THEIR SAN DIEGO EXHIBIT



Here are Henry and Edsel Ford getting their first glimpse of a model of the building that will house the Ford Exhibition at the California Pacific International Exposition, at San Diego, Calif. Between them is G. Aubrey Davidson, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Exposition.

Henry Ford will make a personal visit to the West Coast this summer to see the California Pacific International Exposition, which opens May 29th, at San Diego. Edsel B. Ford, President of the Ford Motor Company, will also visit the exposition some time during the summer, but whether or not circumstances will permit father and son to make the trip at the same time cannot now be determined.

The Chairman of the Board of Directors of the exposition, G. Aubrey Davidson said, "We hope to make the exposition a definite factor in the encouragement of friendship among the nations. We are inviting the government of all nations on the Pacific Ocean to participate and, so far, we have had more than a score of acceptances."

The Ford building, cast in modern lines and embracing open-air features permitted by the mild Southern California climate, is to be of permanent construction and is to remain in Balboa Park after the exposition is over.

It will be an immense circular building, fronted by a high tower, built on a promontory skirted on three sides by a deep canyon. The rear of the building will open on a balcony which will afford visitors a beautiful view, with the glistening Pacific in the distance. Over the terraced slopes of the canyon is to be built one of the most attractive features of the Ford exhibit—the "Roads of the Pacific"—reconstructed replicas of typical roads of the principal countries fronting on the Pacific Ocean.

The visitor approaching the building from the front will see a high tower, its fluted sides resplendent in their whiteness, rising from a base having the appearance of two huge gear-wheels, laid on their sides, one within the other. The base of the tower is 221 feet above the ocean, and the tower itself rises 198 feet. Housed in the base of the tower will be an immense diorama showing the variegated life in the Pacific countries.

Grouped around the walls of the circular entrance to the building will be the pictured story of the production of various kinds of ore, wool, cotton, bauxite, rubber and other raw materials used in the manufacture of the Ford car.

The main part of the building, built of white stucco plaster, will be 340 feet in diameter, its outer wall 40 feet high. Inside against the wall, are a series of exhibits, then, moving toward the center, a broad passage-way, and then another series of exhibits arranged in broad semi-circular form. The exhibits and the passageway are to be roofed over, but, in the center, is a great open court, 186 feet wide, in which all the latest models of Ford and Lincoln cars will be on display, while in a separate location will be a complete exhibit of models of the Ford car, showing the development of the modern automobile.

Entering the great exhibition hall, the visitor will see, to the right, a corridor with exhibits showing the actual manufacture of Ford parts, and in the left corridor exhibits showing body designing and motor assembly and telling the whole story of the technical development of the Ford car.

The architectural department of the exposition, headed by Richard S. Requa, are the architects and engineers of the building, which was designed by Walter Dorwin Teague of New York City.

FAIR SITUATION CALLED SERIOUS AFTER LENGTHY DEBATE BY SUPERVISORS

Failure of Exposition Seen As Possibility Of Disagreement

Seven hours of debate which extended to 2:30 a. m. Tuesday failing to convince the San Francisco Broad of Supervisors that the proposed 1938 world's fair should be held on Yerba Buena shoals in the middle of San Francisco bay.

The failure of the San Francisco board to approve the site threw the fair situation into turmoil. Only the chance that one supervisor might change his mind when a revote is taken next Monday, is all that stands in the way of resignation of the directors and appointment of a new board—or no fair—it is understood.

Voting for the shoal permit were Supervisors Coleman, Brown, Havenner, Hayden and Roncovieri. Against, Supervisors Gallagher, McSheehy, Ratto, Shannon, Schmidt and Uhl.

COLMAN CHANGES

Colman changed his vote and announced he would move for reconsideration.

Specifically, the board refused to request the state legislature to allow the shoals, deeded for an airport, to be used for exposition purposes.

The move to disregard the request and force directors to resign was made by Supervisor Gallagher, who declared that a majority of the people favored a mainland site.

"We can find men able to go out and secure subscriptions and finance an exposition," he declared.

CUTLER SPEAKS

"The directors will not go before people for a bond issue, and the guarantee is that the directors are not going to start building an exposition on a day to day basis," Leland W. Cutler of Woodside, exposition president, told the board.

The directors would be handicapped in their dealings with the federal government, from whom they expect financial aid, if this were written into legislation granting use of shoals, he said.

In answer to statements by Gallagher that Oakland deserved no consideration in selection of a fair site, Coleman declared:

"You can't insult 500,000 persons and make an exposition pay. San Francisco could not support an exposition alone. We need the help of the entire bay region."

Journalism Pupils Take Part in Four Press Discussions

Four round-table disussions were participated in by staff members of the Times, Sequoia high school newspaper, they revealed today upon their return from the press convention for school paper staffs held over the week-end at the University of California.

Dorothy Boyer, only girl sports editor present, attended a forum in "Is Your Sports Page Interesting?" With Gail Morrison, Shirley Bowles, Blanche Hogan and Mary Beeler, she also sat in on "Have Women a Chance in Journalism?"

Miss Morrison and Miss Bowles, editor-in-chief and feature editor, respectively, of the Times, participated in another round table on "Does Your Make-up Emphasize News?"

Advertising Manager Harold Wise took part in the discussion on "Are Your Advertisers Getting Their Money's Worth?"

WHITE STAR TUNA USING MORE 'ADS'

"Our 1935 newspaper expenditure on White Star Tuna will be the largest in our history," R. P. Harper, sales manager and vice-president of the Van Camp Sea Food Company, Inc., of Terminal Island, Calif., reported today.

"Not alone are additional markets being opened, but increased lineage is being used in many of our present markets."

Harper stated that the bulk of the advertising expenditures will be made in newspapers as in previous years. This is the tenth continuous expansion of newspaper advertising, which is credited by company officials as being the major factor in causing more of this brand to be sold throughout the United States than all others combined.

This advertising campaign is not alone one of the largest to emanate from the West Coast, but is one of the nation's largest newspaper food campaigns. It is national in scope and runs in hundreds of newspapers. The advertising is prepared by Emil Brisacher and Staff, advertising engineers, and last year won a national award as being one of the 10 best newspaper campaigns in the entire United States.

Junipero Road Right of Way Funds Voted

$20,000 Is Approved For Another Unit By Supervisors

Continuance down the peninsula of the Junipera Serra boulevard was assisted Monday by the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors in voting $20,000 toward purchase of rights of way between Cypress Lawn Cemetery and Burlingame.

The rights of way will cost $200,000 and San Mateo County's contribution of $20,000 will cover its full share. The balance of funds will come from San Francisco, which will pay $113,000 and the state, which will raise $67,000.

San Francisco and the state are not prepared at this time to pay their full shares. The state will be asked to pay $33,500 during each of the next bienniums, and San Francisco will donate $22,600 yearly for five years.

Supervisor Albert Witt, Colma, in urging the funds, said that he hoped the county by purchasing the rights of way would be in a position to secure federal public works funds on the actual construction. The funds were voted on motion of Supervisor Witt, seconded by Supervisor John Pooie, Redwood City.

Funds are now on hand in the county treasury.

Road Districts Win Support

The board went on record, on motion of Witt, seconded by Poole, to oppose legislation now pending at Sacramento which would wipe out the Junipero Serra district, as well as the Ocean Shore highway district.

Opposition was based on the fact that there are no state commitments to undertake either of these two roads and that the state, under Governor Merriam's road control plan, would have only a passing interest in their development.

Jenkins' Bond Lowering Asked

The question of reducing County Treasurer Harry Jenkins' bond from $150,000 to $100,000 so as to save $1500 per year in premiums was proposed by Jenkins and referred by the board to District Attorney Gilbert Ferrell for a ruling.

Under Jenkins' plan, Ferrell would be named as joint custodian of securities, whch would be transferred from the county vault to local banks for safe-keeping. This would reduce Jenkins' personal liability and would result in lower bonds.

Coast Camp Leases Delayed

Leases for two camps at Half Moon Bay and Pescadero for use of pea pickers was delayed for another week Monday by the board when Chairman Manuel Francis, Half Moon Bay, voiced objection to the proposed transfer of the former camp from Arleta Park to the Emerson ranch.

Francis said the businessmen of the coast wished to have Arleta trol and much trouble would re- Park retained. He said the Emerson ranch was beyond police consult. George Dunn, Half Moon Bay publisher, disagreed with the board chairman over maintaining the camp in Arleta Park. Executive Walter Kellogg was asked to secure Arleta Park for the camp, if possible.

Employment Office Expense Unmet

Refusing for the present to approve the expense of paying $114 per month to pay the wages of Paul Lawlor at the National Reemployment office in San Mateo, the board ordered the appearance of Mrs. Miriam Dwan, manager of the office, to explain why San Mateo county men have not secured work on various San Francisco projects undertaken in San Mateo county with federal funds.

Lawlor, who has worked for two months for nothing because funds ran out, admitted on a question from Supervisor Albert Witt, Colma, that no San Mateo county men secured employment through the San Mateo office on the Hetch Hetchy project.

Poss Status Is Questioned

Supervisor Witt raised some question over the status of Martin Poss as a member of the county planning commission. Poss was selected by Supervisor Fred Beer.

Witt asked that Ferrell rule how an oppointment is made under the charter.

Recreation Body's Delay Protested

Kellogg's request for further delay in naming the county recreation committee met with a protest Monday from Supervisor Fred Beer, San Mateo, who said he was getting "sick and tired" of continuances.

The executive explained that an appointee he had selected has left for Europe and cannot serve.

NEW WHEAT BREAD ENJOYS WIDE SALE

Success of a phenomenal sort it attending Honey Krushed Wheat Bread, latest creation of Kilpatrick's Marvel Bakery, according to D. S. Kilpatrick, president. Introduced only a few day ago, demand is already so heavy that daily production has been increased several times and sales are now increasing more rapidly than ever.

Honey Krushed Wheat Bread, according to Kilpatrick, has been endorsed by a number of physicians on account of its aid in stimulating the system to proper elimination and its beneficial effect on digestion. The bread is made according to a formula developed by a well known university professor and has attained wide sale in eastern and middle western states, he said.

"We knew before we began to bake it that Honey Krushed Wheat Bread would sell rapidly," said Kilpatrick, "but we did not anticipate anything like the demand which has sprung up for it almost overnight."

Archbishop Hanna Retires

The retirement of Archbishop Edward J. Hanna on account of advancing years and ill health is a cause of much regret. During his long service to the church and state he made many friends by his kindly manner and the earnestness of his work.

Archbishop Hanna carries with him into his retirement the love and best wishes and happiness of a host of well wishers.

In his declining years, it is more than likely that considerable of his leisure moments will be passed at St. Patrick's Seminary, for which institutioin he has much affection. His younger years were spent in preparing young men for the priesthood and in his older years he loves to be associated with those studying for church work.

Six grandchildren also survive. They are Mrs. Gladys Swanson of San Francisco; Milton Cavalli of La Honda, and Bernice, Vera Jeanette and Lawrence Guerra, all of Hollister. Mrs. Cavalli, widow of the late Batista Cavalli, was also the greatgrandmother of Charles Gray Swanson of San Francisco.

1 HURT, 1 JAILED IN DANCE FIGHT

South San Francisco Argument Is Ended With Knifing

One man was in a hospital today suffering from serious injuries and another was being held in jail Monday following an argument over dancing abilities which culminated in a South San Francisco stabbing affray yesterday morning.

John Hernandez, 35, a railroad section hand, of 229 California avenue, South San Francisco, was the victim. His assailant, according to police, is Luis Mota, 29, SERA worker, of 383 Ninth street, San Francisco. Both were drunk, police said.

Police Chief Belloni of South San Francisco said the two men quarreled at a party over which was the better dancer. Mota suddenly drew a knife, slashed Hernandez in the abdomen and gouged out his eye, Belloni said.

Long Fails in Effort To Get College Fund

WASHINGTON, March 14 (UP)—Senator Huey P. Long today failed in an effort to write into the work relief bill a provision that $100,000,000 might be used to provide college education for needy youths.

The senate rejected the Long amendment by a vote of 57 to 28, despite a spirited defense of it by Senator Hiram Johnson. Johnson declared the senate should have a voice in suggesting methods fo rspending the proposed $4,480,000,000 appropriation.

More Than 3600 Charter Change Signatures Filed

With nearly 500 signatures on charter change petitions left in the county clerk's office for checking Monday by Attorney Wayne Millington, more than the 3600 names required for calling a special election have now been secured, the lawyer said today.

Of these signatures, several hundred have been or will be eliminated, but it is believed by sponsors of the petitions that within the next few days sufficient more will be secured and turned in so that the board of supervisors can be presented with the checked petitions next Monday.

THREE STRIKES UNDERWAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 11 (UP)—Three strikes involving 6,000 cleaners and dyers, boiler makers and union seamen aboard oil tankers gripped the San Francisco bay district today in the most widespread series of labor difficulties since the general strike last summer. SAN BRUNO WOMAN IS WRECK VICTIM

Two Motorists Cited After Crashing Into House

One person was killed, at least two were injured and four were arrested in week-end traffic accidents in San Mateo county, traffic patrolmen's reports revealed today.

Mrs. Lavina Grady, 72, of San Bruno, was fatally hurt in a collision on El Camino Real near San Bruno. She died yesterday morning at the South San Francisco Hospital.

Mrs. Grady was riding in a machine with Mr. and Mrs. S. A. McCallam of San Bruno that collided with one driven by H. J. Golheoire of Millbrae. Mrs. McCallum was cut and bruised, but the others were uninjured.

MOTORMAN ARRESTED

William C. Gunther, 66-year-old San Francisco motorman, received a cut on his lower lip when he allegedly ran through three red flares at the scene of an accident on the Bayshore highway near Mills Field last night at 10:20 o'clock and wrecked his car after striking two machines which had collided in another crash. Gunther was arrested on a charge of driving while intoxicated and released on $50 bail.

Occupants of the other cars were uninjured.

ON WRONG SIDE

Robert E. Brown, 35, San Francisco carpenter, was jailed by Capt. Paul Perussina at 8:45 a. m. yesterday. Brown, according to the patrolman, was driving on the wrong side of the Bayshore highway when his machine collided with that of R. J. Van der Snehden of Broadway. No one was injured in the crash.

Two other motorists were arrested when their machine crashed into the house of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Nobbs at 2870 Adeline drive, Burlingame. They were W. F. Mitchell and Ray Douthit, both of Burlingame.

CRASH INTO HOUSE

Mitchell, driving Douthit's automobile, failed to negotiate a turn on Adeline drive at 8:30 a. m. yesterday and drove spectacularly and unexpectedly into the Nobbs home, according to the report of Capt. Perussina.

Mitchell was arrested for reckless driving and Douthit on a charge of disturbing the peace.

TEACHER, WIFE INJURED

C. A. Van Patten, Sequoia high school teacher, and Mrs. Van Patten were recovering today from lacerations received Sunday when their machine collided on El Camino Real at Belmont with the automobile of Eugene G. Schneider, also of Redwood.

Woman Builder Seeks $20,000 In Slander Suit

Miss Barbara Ogden, Redwood City contractor who last week had her license restored by Superior Judge McNutt, today sued Carlos W. Huntington, Glen V. Slater and Alvin C. Dilg for $20,000, alleging that the three slandered her.

The defendants "published by writing and printing a statement charging that plaintiff was guilty of having received from defendant Alvin C. Dilg a sum of money for the purpose of completing certain alterations and additions to the house of said defendant and that plaintiff diverted said money to another use and applied the same to another purpose," the complaint, filed by Attorney A. J. Harwood, declares.

"Said statement . . . is false, untrue, defamatory and libelous," Miss Ogden affirms, charging that the defendants knew that it was false. She also claims they published the statement "with intent to injure and disgrace and defame" her and to "bring her into public discredit as a business woman" and to "cause the public to hold plaintiff in contempt and ridicule."

She seeks $10,000 actual and $10,000 exemplary damages.

YOUNG BURGLAR SENT TO PRISON

Other Cases Handled In Superior Court; Muscatello Guilty

Pleading guilty to a charge of burglary, Charles Shinn, 20, alias L. E. Johnson, was Monday afternoon sentenced to San Quentin prison by Superior Judge A. R. Cotton.

His Companion, Charles Lane, 18, who also entered a guilty plea, asked for probation. His case was referred to Probation Officer Francis Robinson. Time for sentence was set for Monday, March 25.

The pair were caught burglarizing a Burlingame home while owners of the premises were absent. They were the same duo who attempted to hold up a Daly City night watchman. When the aged watchman refused to throw up his hands when confronted by the armed youths, they fled, taking with them his hat, which one of them was wearing when captured, after a chase by officers, in Burlingame.

In Superior Judge McNutt's court, Mike Muscatello, 30, pleaded guilty to a reduced charge of simple assault and asked for probation. His case also was referred to the probation officer, with a report and sentence due in two weeks. Muscatello was originally charged with rape, allegedly committed on the person of Noralee Rice, 19-year-old San Francisco girl. A companion of Muscatello, known in the prize ring as Mike Dempsey, is still being sought by sheriff's officers.

W. T. Johnson, charged with passing a $5 fictitious check on a local service station, was placed on two years' probation by Judge McNutt. Condition of the probation is that he make the $5 check good.

The cases of Matt and Helen Gallagher and of Fong Wo, all held on narcotics charges, were continued a week.

Temperature of birds ranges from 100 to 113 degrees. Circulation is so rapid and the food supply is burned so quickly that birds are forced to eat almost constantly to keep their small bodies supplied with fuel.

Lamson Lawyer Files Suit for Client Here

Damages of $42,852.90 were sought today in a suit filed in superior court by E. G. Hinds against the Valley Motor Lines, Inc., and Charles E. Rusert, driver for the firm, as the result of an automobile accident September 17, 1934, on the Bayshore highway near South San Francisco.

Hinds, suing through Attorney Edwin V. McKenzie of San Francisco, who is also a defense attorney for David A. Lamson in his San Jose murder trial, claims that he was permanently injured when his automobile and the truck driven by Rusert collided.

Insanity is increasing rapidly in the province of Quebec. In 1928 the increase was 1 per cent, in 1929 it was 5½ per cent, and in 1930 it was 14 per cent.
